Current Rumor Places Him as Fifth Man for City Commission.

Joe B. Burney, chief of police, may be the fifth man on the J. J. Wil-liams ticket, if rumors which are cirbe the fifth man on the J. J. Williams ticket, if rumors which are circulating about the city have any foundation. The plan, these rumors say, is for Burney to be named to the office of fire and police commissioner, if the Williams ticket is elected.

Chief Burney has had more than 20 years experience in police work on the Memphis force. He has held every position in the department. He is recognized as one of the best officers who every trod the streets of assempais.

Burney at present is on a two weeks' vacation. His place is being filled by F. Ernest Miller. Ever since Miller took the job, politicians have predicted that Burney never would come back to it and certainly that Miller would be retained until after the election. This has been denied by C. B. Quinn. This has been denied by C. B. Quinn. Commissioner of the fire and police departmenta. Quinn states that Burney will come back to the chief's job. But there's nothing to prevent Burney from quiting as chief, and making the race for commissioner.

Section 22, which forbids a city employe from resigning a city job to which he has been appointed, to run for another office, would not aply in Chief Burney's case. Burney was appointed chief of police for the year 1918, but he has been a holdover since 1918, but he has been a hondover since 1918, but he has been a pointed for this year.

The Willams ticket, it is understood, is complete with the exception of one candidate for commissioner. The ticket probably will be anorumced within two weeks.

Moss, president of the club after the last anout from the throats of the last happy group taken to their homes tired, happy and satisfied, had died away Friday aftermoon.

satisfied, had died away Friday afternoon.

Soda pop, popcorn, oranges, ics cream, horns, music, eats and then more eats, enough to satisfy the gastronomic apparatus of the most healthful of the kids, were provided in abundance.

A procession of 62 automobiles paraded downtown streets Friday afternon and until the descending sun's long rays gave warning of the approach of night childhood ran rampant at Overton park. Foot races for which prizes were awarded made giad boyish hearts, dolls and sashes for the girls were given in profusion. None, even the kids, enjoyed the outing more than the kindly hearted fellows of the Kiwanians whose generosity made possible the outing.

The committee on arangements was composed of Louis J. Moss, president; J. B. Kelly, Angus Niemeyer, Gus F. Schlecht, William Hotchkies, W. D. Bejach, W. E. Clark, M. S. Silverberg, Allen Fisher and C. W. Miller.

JUDGE FITZHUGH BACK.

After a acation of three weeks spent in Milwaukee and Chicago, Judge L. T. Fitzhugh, of the city court, appeared in Central police station Saturday morning with alluring stories of the pleasures to be had in those cities. Judge Fitzhugh stated he probably would go on the bench again Monday afternoon to greet the Memphis law violators and alleged crooks. John Galelia, acting judge, has held court for the period of Judge Fitzhugh's absence.

BAD CHECK CHARGED.

Joseph P. Moyer, is being held at the Central police station on a charge of forging the signature of J. J. South, of the Delta Oil company, to a $25 check. Moyer was arrested in Desha county, Arkansas, upon a letter from Chief Joe Burney to the sheriff there recently. Moyer was an employe of the Delta Oil company for some time.
